

🎄 2017 HOLIDAY PARTY ! 🎄

On Saturday December 10, the PVSSC held its annual Holiday Party at Alfio's in Chevy Chase, MD. While the turnout was smaller than usual, with some folks (including your Editor) out of town, it did not diminish the festive holiday atmosphere. Door prizes were awarded during lunch with almost everybody in attendance having a winning number drawn. Following a brief meeting (see minutes elsewhere in the Wiretap), we started the gift exchange. Two light-up Schnauzer lawn ornaments got the most action, stolen back and forth until they were "retired". Special thanks to Melissa Jennings, for organizing the Party! Thanks also to Rose Miller for once again serving as "Santa", to Ed Sakala for his photos, and to all who contributed door prizes and participated in the exchange.
